Miss Calaveras Pageant – Code of Conduct

Dress Standards

Miss Calaveras and her court are expected to dress in good taste during the fair and all events listed above.

Specifically:

- Sexually suggestive clothing is prohibited.
- Tank tops, halter tops, t-shirts, etc. are acceptable only if bras are worn and bra straps are not visible.
- Shorts, dresses, and skirts may be worn but must not be so short as to restrict appropriate movement (such as bending over).
- Clothing, jewelry, and accessories may not contain sexually explicit, racially offensive, or inappropriate words, slogans, or illustrations.
- Attire that depicts, advertises, promotes, or encourages the use of illegal substances, alcohol, or tobacco products is strictly prohibited.

Displays of Affection

When wearing a sash and crown, Miss Calaveras and her court are expected to behave discreetly and professionally at all times.

- Personal displays of affection toward a partner are not appropriate while in sash and crown.
  - Friends are not permitted to accompany Miss Calaveras or members of the court during official appearances.
  - Miss Calaveras and her court are the official representatives of Calaveras County and will be attending numerous events throughout the fair and year.
  - Friends and family should understand and respect the obligations and responsibilities of the titleholders.

Causes for Dismissal / Loss of Title

The following behaviors are strictly prohibited and will be grounds for immediate dismissal and loss of title as Miss Calaveras, First Runner-Up, or Second Runner-Up.

Being proven to be:

- In possession of or under the influence of any controlled substance, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant of any kind (regardless of age).
- In possession of or using tobacco products, including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, smokeless tobacco, vaping devices, or miniature cigarettes.
- In possession of, for use or sale, illegal drugs, inhalants, or any mood-altering substance not prescribed by a physician.
- Using vulgar language or profanity while appearing in public as Miss Calaveras or a member of the court.
- Engaging in inappropriate use of social media as defined in this Code of Conduct and the Social Media Policy.
